Saturday Pray for North Korea

Pray for:

- North Korea is a focal point for tension in the world. Pray for peace and for peacemakers in this context
- BMS prayer initiative Project Cyrus, that many across the UK will be encouraged to pray for North Korea
- There are often reports of food shortages in North Korea. Pray for North Koreans in the face of hardship, poverty and natural disasters
- Believers in North Korea, that they will grow in their faith and be protected and strengthened in the face of huge challenges
- Professionals from the West working in the country, that they may be a blessing and bringers of grace and peace
- Scripture encourages us to "pray for those in authority" (1 Timothy 2: 1-4). Pray for Kim Jong-un and the leadership of North Korea
- The presence of God in this land, that his love might be made known and that his kingdom might come

Registration is now open for the Cupar Churches Children's Holiday Club. Running at the Old Parish Centre in the mornings from Monday 30th July until Friday 3rd August, the Club is for all children from just-completed P1 up to just-completed P7. This year we are following the Scripture Union programme TeamBuilders. Through Bible stories, games, crafts, songs and lots more, the children will learn what it's like to be on God's team. For more information and to register, go to cuparchurchesholidayclub.org.uk.

There will be a Church Prayer Meeting in the hall on Saturday mornings 8.30am till 10am each week unless intimated otherwise. Please feel free to come along for all or part of the time.

House group – Thursday at Foodieash

You might like to join us in our prayer walk. Please speak to Caroline if you're interested in coming along for a taster, to join the group, or just for a one-off. Our activities are:

Foodieash Housegroup - May & June 2018
28-Jun	Prayer walk

Friday fellowship meeting will have a break for summer from 6.7.18 and start again in September. Thank you to those who support this group it is a pleasure to read and discuss God's word with you all. Margaret

Please note there is a Data Privacy Notice displayed on the notice board in the hall.

It is with sadness that we note the death on 24.5.18 of Ian Mackie, a former member of our fellowship. Our thoughts are with his family. There will be a private service of committal at the crematorium followed by a service of thanksgiving for his life in the church at 12noon on Tuesday 19th June conducted by Rev Bill Macdonald

Sunday 24th June will be the Gift Day for Junior Church after which there will be a Fellowship BBQ to which you are all invited (you might like to also invite a friend). This will be a family service. Look forward to seeing as many as possible there.
